Field Training Officer (FTO) & Certified Instructor, Granite School District Police Department, Utah, 2015 to 2018

ACCIDENT RECONSTRUCTION:

Mr. Jacox conducts comprehensive reconstruction of complex motor vehicle, motorcycle, and commercial vehicle collisions using established engineering and forensic methodologies. He applies Northwestern University Center for Public Safety crash investigation principles to determine speed, causation, and liability factors for civil litigation and insurance matters. Mr. Jacox performs scene documentation, evidence collection, and vehicle inspections, and authors detailed technical reports and analyses suitable for use in civil litigation, insurance claims, and expert testimony.

In his prior role as a Motor Officer with the St. George Police Department, Mr. Jacox led in-depth investigations of serious-injury and fatal traffic collisions.

INVESTIGATION AND POLICING:

Prior to joining Knott Laboratory, Mr. Jacox spent over a decade in law enforcement. As a Detective in Violent Crimes Investigations with the Sandy City Police Department, he directed complex, high-liability investigations involving sensitive violent crime cases, conducting structured, certified interviews and meticulous evidence analysis to build court-ready cases. Mr. Jacox received the Life Saving Award for decisive leadership during a life-threatening emergency.

As a Field Training Officer and Certified Instructor with the Granite School District Police Department, Mr. Jacox trained, mentored, and evaluated new officers, ensuring rapid proficiency and enforcement of policy compliance, and delivered hands-on instruction as a Certified Taser Instructor.
